

Police and Commissioner McAdoo with pool-room conditions. The Adams Street and Amity Street Precincts are two of the busiest in Brooklyn. The prevalence of pool rooms in the Adams Street Precinct has been talked of for a long time. Recently Commissioner McAdoo has had detectives in the precinct without the knowledge of the commander. The result is shown in the removal of Capt. Murphy to the classic shades of Parkville, where the only excitement arises from the passage of the street cars bound for Coney Island on a branch line. Capt. Rooney also gets a remote post at Rockaway avenue.

EXPLODED TO CLEAN IT UP.

Capt. Sylvester Baldwin, who is expected to clean up the Amity street precinct, was recently reduced from an Inspectorship and is making plans to fight the reduction in the courts. Capt. Bernard Gallagher, who draws the Adams street assignment from Bergen street, is coming to the front as a commander.

STALLED IN SNOW NINETEEN HOURS

(Continued from First Page.)

Winds, and the snow kept piling up every minute, as the wind continued high. The windows of the cars were soon completely obscured.

Word was received in the Long Island Railroad offices that the train on the Montauk division was held up and that it needed snow. A snow plough was sent from the nearest station. The snow plough had to go through just the same extent as the train, but it made mile after mile toward the blocked train, and the men who were running it thought that they would reach the train early in the afternoon.

Snow Plough Stalled, Too.

But twenty feet from the nose of the snow plough stalled the train. The snow plough was soon completely obscured.

When this happened the snow plough was soon completely obscured. The snow plough was soon completely obscured.

The Women Became Reasoned.

The women were prevailed finally that the train was in no danger of being derailed entirely by the snow, and they accepted the conditions in a spirit of resignation. Many slept as best they could during the night, which seemed as if it would never end. At 11 o'clock this morning the snow plough cleared the track sufficiently to permit the snow plough or the train to go ahead. The storm had subsided.

48,000 RUSSIANS CAPTURED BY JAPS

(Continued from First Page.)

As soon as the Russian charts were in the capitulation agreement was signed.

The entry of the Japanese into the Russian city of Jan. 1 will be an important event in the city on Jan. 1.

NO FLEET TO BE BROUGHT HOME

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 5.—Although rumors to that effect have not yet been made to Admiral Rozhkovsky, the decision has been made to return the Russian Pacific fleet to Europe.

COURT-MARTIAL FOR SHAVE GEN. STOESEL

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 5.—Few incidents of the whole war have aroused more bitter criticism than the blunt announcement, officially issued by the Russian staff to-day, that Gen. Stoessel will have to come home and stand court-martial for surrendering the fortress of Ivangorod.

ONE KILLED, THREE HURT, IN CHICAGO SHOOTING

Fugitive, Pursued, Fires on Police and Is Himself Shot and Taken Prisoner, Dying.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—One person was killed, another mortally wounded, and two others wounded less seriously to-day during an attempt by the police to capture Harry Peinberg, a brother of former pugilist "Kid" Farmer, now in the penitentiary.

ONE KILLED, THREE HURT, IN CHICAGO SHOOTING

Fugitive, Pursued, Fires on Police and Is Himself Shot and Taken Prisoner, Dying.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—One person was killed, another mortally wounded, and two others wounded less seriously to-day during an attempt by the police to capture Harry Peinberg, a brother of former pugilist "Kid" Farmer, now in the penitentiary.

ONE KILLED, THREE HURT, IN CHICAGO SHOOTING

Fugitive, Pursued, Fires on Police and Is Himself Shot and Taken Prisoner, Dying.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—One person was killed, another mortally wounded, and two others wounded less seriously to-day during an attempt by the police to capture Harry Peinberg, a brother of former pugilist "Kid" Farmer, now in the penitentiary.

ONE KILLED, THREE HURT, IN CHICAGO SHOOTING

Fugitive, Pursued, Fires on Police and Is Himself Shot and Taken Prisoner, Dying.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—One person was killed, another mortally wounded, and two others wounded less seriously to-day during an attempt by the police to capture Harry Peinberg, a brother of former pugilist "Kid" Farmer, now in the penitentiary.

ONE KILLED, THREE HURT, IN CHICAGO SHOOTING

Fugitive, Pursued, Fires on Police and Is Himself Shot and Taken Prisoner, Dying.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—One person was killed, another mortally wounded, and two others wounded less seriously to-day during an attempt by the police to capture Harry Peinberg, a brother of former pugilist "Kid" Farmer, now in the penitentiary.

ONE KILLED, THREE HURT, IN CHICAGO SHOOTING

Fugitive, Pursued, Fires on Police and Is Himself Shot and Taken Prisoner, Dying.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—One person was killed, another mortally wounded, and two others wounded less seriously to-day during an attempt by the police to capture Harry Peinberg, a brother of former pugilist "Kid" Farmer, now in the penitentiary.

ONE KILLED, THREE HURT, IN CHICAGO SHOOTING

Fugitive, Pursued, Fires on Police and Is Himself Shot and Taken Prisoner, Dying.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—One person was killed, another mortally wounded, and two others wounded less seriously to-day during an attempt by the police to capture Harry Peinberg, a brother of former pugilist "Kid" Farmer, now in the penitentiary.

ONE KILLED, THREE HURT, IN CHICAGO SHOOTING

Fugitive, Pursued, Fires on Police and Is Himself Shot and Taken Prisoner, Dying.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—One person was killed, another mortally wounded, and two others wounded less seriously to-day during an attempt by the police to capture Harry Peinberg, a brother of former pugilist "Kid" Farmer, now in the penitentiary.

ACCUSES POLICE OF GAMBLING

Parkhurst Society Superintendent Says He Has Names of Twelve Who Played in Place He Raided.

ALLEGED PROPRIETOR AND TWO OTHERS HELD IN $500.

Agents Assert They Won $14.50 at "Baccalo" with 17 in Game and Bought Real Whiskey and Wine.

The three men arrested last night in a raid conducted by Supt. McClintock, of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, on an ice-cream saloon at No. 172 Sullivan street, and charged with running a gambling-house there, were held to-day in $500 bail each for trial by Magistrate Moss in the Jefferson Market Police Court.

The prisoners gave the names of John Baccalo, the alleged proprietor, living over the store, Louis Bucca, of No. 222 Bleecker street, and John Tontagetti, of No. 110 West Houston street. The first of the trio was held in an additional $500 bail on a charge of selling liquor without a license.

Says Police Gambled, Too.

When Magistrate Moss held the men Supt. McClintock said it was a great victory for the Society, and it proved that conditions in the city "are much blacker than the police paint them."

"The raid on this place," said Supt. McClintock, "shows the exact relations of the police with it. The men we sent there to get evidence during the first week have the names of a dozen policemen who drank and gambled there in their presence, knowing they were violating the law. We are going to lay those names before the proper authorities and at a proper time. This is one of the most important raids we have made in years."

Buy Wine and Whiskey.

The complainants against the prisoners were Robert McClelland and William A. Hartman, agents of the Society. McClelland swore that on Jan. 3 he and Hartman played "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

Hartman said that on Jan. 3 he and McClelland were playing "baccalo" and won $14.50. There were seventeen other men in the game.

"We bought whiskey and wine," said McClelland, "and tasted it." The raid was made late last night.

BARBER VICTIM OF BLACK HAND, AND DIAGRAM OF DYNAMITE EXPLOSION, AND GIRL HURT

$39,325,240 IN DRANK POISON, CARNEGIE GIFTS SON LOOKING ON

Millionaire Has Given the Money for Almost 1,300 Buildings in Various Parts of the English Speaking World.

BELOIT, Wis., Jan. 5.—Andrew Carnegie up to date has given $39,325,240 for libraries, of which $25,094,480 has been contributed to various cities in this country and the remainder abroad. All the libraries have been donated to the English-speaking people, the total number of buildings pledged being 1,300.

These facts were brought out in an address by Horace White at the dedication to-day of the new Carnegie library in this city, to cost $50,000.

The data for these statements was gathered by Mr. Bertram, Mr. Carnegie's secretary, who spent thirty days getting it together.

All in a Short Time.

In opening, Mr. White referred to the gifts of the Astors, of Bates, Peabody, Russell, Lenox, Tilden, Newberry, Chever and Chittenden, and gave full credit to each, saying most of these had contributed within the last quarter century.

Continuing, he said: "Yet more work has been done in this country for free libraries in thirteen years than had been done in our whole previous history, and one man has done more of it than all others put together."

"Mr. Carnegie has, up to the present time, given or pledged himself to give 1,300 library buildings to the English-speaking people. Of these 770 are in the United States. The aggregate cost of these buildings is $39,325,240, of which $25,094,480 has been expended in England and $14,230,760 in Scotland and $1,475,000 in Canada."

"The proportion of the total population which Mr. Carnegie has supplied with library facilities is, for the aggregate of the English-speaking race, a little more than 18 per cent, and that is the percentage for the United States, for England and for Canada, taken separately."

"This means that eighteen in each one hundred persons, in all and in each of these countries have free and convenient access to books by reason of Mr. Carnegie's beneficence. These are mostly dwellers in library activity and usefulness."

"The proportion of the total population which Mr. Carnegie has supplied with library facilities is, for the aggregate of the English-speaking race, a little more than 18 per cent, and that is the percentage for the United States, for England and for Canada, taken separately."

"This means that eighteen in each one hundred persons, in all and in each of these countries have free and convenient access to books by reason of Mr. Carnegie's beneficence. These are mostly dwellers in library activity and usefulness."

"The proportion of the total population which Mr. Carnegie has supplied with library facilities is, for the aggregate of the English-speaking race, a little more than 18 per cent, and that is the percentage for the United States, for England and for Canada, taken separately."

"This means that eighteen in each one hundred persons, in all and in each of these countries have free and convenient access to books by reason of Mr. Carnegie's beneficence. These are mostly dwellers in library activity and usefulness."

"The proportion of the total population which Mr. Carnegie has supplied with library facilities is, for the aggregate of the English-speaking race, a little more than 18 per cent, and that is the percentage for the United States, for England and for Canada, taken separately."

"This means that eighteen in each one hundred persons, in all and in each of these countries have free and convenient access to books by reason of Mr. Carnegie's beneficence. These are mostly dwellers in library activity and usefulness."

"The proportion of the total population which Mr. Carnegie has supplied with library facilities is, for the aggregate of the English-speaking race, a little more than 18 per cent, and that is the percentage for the United States, for England and for Canada, taken separately."

"This means that eighteen in each one hundred persons, in all and in each of these countries have free and convenient access to books by reason of Mr. Carnegie's beneficence. These are mostly dwellers in library activity and usefulness."

"The proportion of the total population which Mr. Carnegie has supplied with library facilities is, for the aggregate of the English-speaking race, a little more than 18 per cent, and that is the percentage for the United States, for England and for Canada, taken separately."

"This means that eighteen in each one hundred persons, in all and in each of these countries have free and convenient access to books by reason of Mr. Carnegie's beneficence. These are mostly dwellers in library activity and usefulness."

"The proportion of the total population which Mr. Carnegie has supplied with library facilities is, for the aggregate of the English-speaking race, a little more than 18 per cent, and that is the percentage for the United States, for England and for Canada, taken separately."

"This means that eighteen in each one hundred persons, in all and in each of these countries have free and convenient access to books by reason of Mr. Carnegie's beneficence. These are mostly dwellers in library activity and usefulness."

"The proportion of the total population which Mr. Carnegie has supplied with library facilities is, for the aggregate of the English-speaking race, a little more than 18 per cent, and that is the percentage for the United States, for England and for Canada, taken separately."

"This means that eighteen in each one hundred persons, in all and in each of these countries have free and convenient access to books by reason of Mr. Carnegie's beneficence. These are mostly dwellers in library activity and usefulness."

"The proportion of the total population which Mr. Carnegie has supplied with library facilities is, for the aggregate of the English-speaking race, a little more than 18 per cent, and that is the percentage for the United States, for England and for Canada, taken separately."

"This means that eighteen in each one hundred persons, in all and in each of these countries have free and convenient access to books by reason of Mr. Carnegie's beneficence. These are mostly dwellers in library activity and usefulness."

"The proportion of the total population which Mr. Carnegie has supplied with library facilities is, for the aggregate of the English-speaking race, a little more than 18 per cent, and that is the percentage for the United States, for England and for Canada, taken separately."

"This means that eighteen in each one hundred persons, in all and in each of these countries have free and convenient access to books by reason of Mr. Carnegie's beneficence. These are mostly dwellers in library activity and usefulness."

"The proportion of the total population which Mr. Carnegie has supplied with library facilities is, for the aggregate of the English-speaking race, a little more than 18 per cent, and that is the percentage for the United States, for England and for Canada, taken separately."

"This means that eighteen in each one hundred persons, in all and in each of these countries have free and convenient access to books by reason of Mr. Carnegie's beneficence. These are mostly dwellers in library activity and usefulness."

Hazelton Had Done Little Work of Late and Drank Heavily, His Wife Supporting Family by Domestic Labor.

Before the eyes of his nine-year-old son, who did not realize the meaning of his father's action, Hamilton Hazelton, fifty years old, a laborer, living on the top floor of the tenement at No. 89 West Eighth street, drank carbolic acid this afternoon, and died before the arrival of an ambulance surgeon.

The child, William, saw his father fall, wrestling in agony to the floor, and ran out to tell other tenants that his father was sick. When they reached the room where the suicide lay, Hazelton was past help, and expired in a few minutes.

Had Been Drinking Heavily.

Hazelton had worked little of late, and, according to his wife, had been drinking heavily. She supported the family for the most part, by going out for domestic labor. When she went to work this morning her husband remained at home with the two children.

When she returned at noon Hazelton asked her for money for a drink and she refused. He then drank carbolic acid.

As the child looked on, affrighted and wondering, Hazelton uncorked the bottle, put it to his lips and drank all the contents. He fell to the floor and became unconscious almost immediately.

The boy called in the neighbors, who notified Policeman Heist, of the Mercer street station. Dr. Lacey came from St. Vincent's Hospital, but Hazelton was dead.

Aged Butcher a Suicide.

Peter Herberner, aged sixty, a butcher, who had a room at Robert Schenck street, on the third floor at No. 781 First avenue, distributed his personal effects among friends and relatives last week.

This afternoon he was found dead in his room, with the gas turned on. Herberner had not worked for some time and had been ill. The theory is that the man committed suicide.

20TH CENTURY LIMITED CRASHED IN THE STORM.

New York Man Was Among the Injured in Collision Between Fast Trains.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 5.—A rear-end collision occurred late last night between the Twentieth Century Limited and the Chicago, Boston and New York Special on the Lake Shore near Angola, N. Y., as a result of which eight passengers were injured, but none fatally.

Both trains were eastbound. The Twentieth Century Limited was running at reduced speed owing to a hot box on the engine. A blinding snowstorm prevented the engineer of the train following from seeing the black signal.

Among the injured were the following: H. G. Morton, New York, hurt internally; W. H. Clarkson, St. Louis, hurt and bruised; John S. Butler, Buffalo, hurt; and John S. Richardson, N. Y. A. out on head.

Neither engines or cars left the track. The second train was running at less than full speed owing to the heavy snowstorm.

TRIBUTE TO W. H. BALDWIN.

A graceful tribute was paid to the memory of the late William H. Baldwin, Jr., at the monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to-day.

After President Morris K. Jesup had officially notified the Chamber of the death of Mr. Baldwin, who was a member, Jacob H. Schiff read a eulogistic address.

Then he told of Mr. Baldwin's work in the Chamber of Commerce, his untiring efforts to serve the city, and his untiring efforts to serve the city.

"I shall always be able to earn a living for myself and family, but I shall never have another opportunity, perhaps, to serve my city in this way."

Senator Dewey was present at the meeting and made a speech in which he lauded the work he hoped to do in the Legislature.

CASSIUS REED HURT.

Cassius H. Reed, seventy years old, a retired merchant, living at No. 9 West Sixty-fifth street, was struck by a trolley-bound Third Avenue car at Forty-fourth street to-day, sustaining a laceration of the scalp. He was not injured by the car, but was thrown to the ground.

Mr. Reed was crossing the avenue and did not see the car approaching. He was struck by the front step of the car and knocked down.

AGED MAN SUICIDES BY GAS.

The police of the Fifth street station report that Albert Schmidtman, seventy-three years old, committed suicide last night in his home, No. 23 Fifth street, by inhaling illuminating gas.

LIZZIE MEYER WILLIAMS WON'T RESIGN IMMIGRATION POST.

Has No Idea of Such a Thing; He Says, but is Busy Planning Improvements in the Service.

Immigration Commissioner William Williams, in an interview this afternoon, emphatically denied the rumor that he would resign.

"I have no intention or thought of resigning," said the Commissioner. "On the other hand am planning improvement and preparing suggestions on the immigration question which I shall forward to Washington."

"I am deeply interested in my duties and am planning them and some reason arises which will compel me to abandon them."

The Commissioner also denied that the rumor as to his resignation arose from a Washington report that he was to be promoted politically and that his name had been suggested for a diplomatic post.

TORPEDO BOAT SAILS.

Gregory, Said to Have Been Built for Russia, Leaves Port.

The torpedo-boat Gregory, which was built at Perth Amboy, N. J., by Lewis Nixon, and is said to have been constructed by order of the Russian Government, is reported as having passed out of Quarantine about 1 o'clock this afternoon. She had been lying at Tompkinsville since Sunday last.

Nixon had made several trips about the way in the vessel.

On Monday the captain and one of the three engineers of the boat went ashore and said good-bye to friends. They said the torpedo-boat was about to sail for Savannah, Ga. When asked why she was going South they answered that it was for "racing purposes." No other information as to her destination is obtainable on Staten Island.

CAN ATTEND WIFE'S FUNERAL.

Special Arrangements Made for Klopman, Accused of Murder.

Ernest Klopman, husband of Clara Klopman, who was found dying near the body of George Frick, in the family apartment at No. 14 East First street, on Saturday night last, was given a special pass to-day, substituting for the usual pass, a special pass to the funeral of his wife.

Mr. Klopman was found dying near the body of George Frick, in the family apartment at No. 14 East First street, on Saturday night last, was given a special pass to-day, substituting for the usual pass, a special pass to the funeral of his wife.

Mr. Klopman was found dying near the body of George Frick, in the family apartment at No. 14 East First street, on Saturday night last, was given a special pass to-day, substituting for the usual pass, a special pass to the funeral of his wife.

Mr. Klopman was found dying near the body of George Frick, in the family apartment at No. 14 East First street, on Saturday night last, was given a special pass to-day, substituting for the usual pass, a special pass to the funeral of his wife.

Mr. Klopman was found dying near the body of George Frick, in the family apartment at No. 14 East First street, on Saturday night last, was given a special pass to-day, substituting for the usual pass, a special pass to the funeral of his wife.

Mr. Klopman was found dying near the body of George Frick, in the family apartment at No. 14 East First street, on Saturday night last, was given a special pass to-day, substituting for the usual pass, a special pass to the funeral of his wife.

Mr. Klopman was found dying near the body of George Frick, in the family apartment at No. 14 East First street, on Saturday night last,